THROSBY LAND READY EARLY

Early completion of works will benefit prospective homeowners and the building industry.

Throsby land owners can start building their homes up to six months earlier thanks to the quick progress of civil works.

Estimated completion dates for the first stages have been brought forward between four and six months. Works on four of the five stages will now be ready between March and September 2017, with the fifth stage ready in the second half of the year.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHIEF MINISTER, ANDREW BARR

Happy New Year to all and I hope you had a fantastic holiday season.

As 2017 kicks off, a new year means new opportunities for all Canberrans and a chance to apply new ideas to our city. The Government is back at work delivering on significant projects to keep our Canberra the world's liveable city.

We're getting the design of stage 2 of light rail from Civic to Woden underway, starting the rollout of green bins across Canberra and working on securing electronic devices for all Canberra's secondary public school students. We're also working on designs for new nurse-led walk-in health centres and opening an Office of Mental Health to help all Canberrans access healthcare when they need it. It will be a big year for our city.

It gives staff a more modern work environment, and there will be 54 more doctors, nurses and other staff working in the new ED over the next four years to help meet the health care needs of our growing community.

The new ED also includes an expanded Emergency Medicine Unit, additional acute and sub acute treatment spaces, new resuscitation bays, a Mental Health Short Stay Unit, and space to accommodate up to seven ambulances at any time.

Four hundred years after it started life as a tiny seedling, a huge yellow box gum tree has been relocated from Nicholls to the soon to be declared Molonglo River reserve, near Coombs.

The tree was deemed unsafe in the suburbs but is perfect for an ongoing restoration project along the Molonglo River, where it will provide valuable habitat for local wildlife.

ROAD UPGRADES CREATING BETTER ACCESS TO GUNGAHLIN TOWN CENTRE

Gungahlin residents now have better access to the town centre with the opening of an extension of The Valley Avenue to Manning Clark Crescent.

This work also included new traffic conditions at the intersection with Kate Grace Street, where The Valley Avenue previously finished. Road users turning from Kate Grace Street onto The Valley Avenue must now give way.

An extension of Manning Clark Crescent through to Anthony Rolfe Avenue will soon be completed, which will further improve access in and around the town centre.

Starting school can be a little daunting for kids, but teachers and the school are there to help. Here are some tips for a successful and enjoyable first day at school:

- > Talk to your child about their first day, what to expect and who they can ask for help.
- > Begin the day with a nutritious breakfast and pack a healthy lunch.
- > Arrive at school with plenty of time to settle in and take cues from teachers about when it's time to leave.
- > Make sure your child knows the after school pickup arrangements or who is collecting them.

CANBERRA'S CARNIVOROUS QUOLLS ARE BREEDING

The first eastern quolls to be born in the ACT in over 80 years are thriving at Mulligans Flat Woodland Sanctuary at Gungahlin.

Over a dozen Eastern Quolls were reintroduced in March 2016 from Tasmania and Victoria as part of a program in partnership with ANU and many other agencies. The quolls had disappeared due to clearing, grazing and introduced predators.

The birth of the baby quolls indicates their parents have settled quickly into their new Mulligans Flat home.
