

2019-20 Future Skills for Future Jobs Grants Program – Grant Recipients

Organisation	Project Description	Grant
YWCA Canberra	Educate, Inspire, Excel : This project will provide academic, social and work readiness support to participants entering the industry through the Certificate III and Diploma of Early Childhood Education and Care qualifications. The aim will be to commence and support Australian Apprenticeships places through their partnered community organisations and YWCA subsidiary centres/ programs.	$296,000
The Academy of Interactive Entertainment	Traineeship pathways for the digital media, design and creative industries : This program will create Australian Apprenticeship pathways in the ACT for the digital design and creative industries. AIE has the support of industry partners as well as gaming and film companies that are subsidiaries of AIE. This program will provide Pre-Apprenticeships and Australian Apprenticeship opportunities through a Certificate II or III in Information, Digital Media and Technology to a range of cohorts.	$198,800
Canberra Institute of Technology	The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Digital Literacy Pre-Traineeship Program : This program will offer a digital literacy pre-apprenticeship to 20 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students before transitioning into an Australian Apprenticeship pathway through partnering organisations linked to the private and public sectors. Partnering with the Yurauna Centre, this project will deliver a range of skills sets to prepare and place Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students into work and training.	$182,500
Australian Training Company	Women in Construction Pathways Program : This project aims to create Australian School-based Apprenticeship opportunities for young women wanting to commence a career in the building and construction industry. The project is a collaboration between Australian Training Company (ATC), The National Association of Women in Construction (NAWIC), the ACT Office for Women and the	$163,000

Organisation	Project Description	Grant
	ACT government's Education Directorate. Placements will be focused on project management, drafting, business and WHS.
LJS Constructions	AMC Building Future Careers Program : Quality Training in Construction has developed a Certificate II in Construction program to address the needs of the Alexander Maconochie Centre to help with the transitioning to release of detainees and ex detainees from The Transitional Release Centre (TRC). Participants in the program will be supported to complete the Certificate II in Construction; building an outdoor entertainment area as part of their coursework. Bespoke mentoring support will be offered throughout the program and during the transition into a workplace post release.	$159,612