Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (FOI) REQUEST

I refer to your application under section 30 of the Freedom of Information Act 2016 (the FOI Act), received by the Education Directorate (the Directorate) on 24 November 2025, in which you sought access to:

Records held by the ACT Education, Health and CMTED Directorates relating to asbestos contamination identified in imported coloured sand products since 1 November 2025, specifically:

- 1. Any communications between the Education Minister or Education Directorate, the Health Minister or Health Directorate, and/or the ACT Chief Minister.*
- 2. Any health or emergency management advice received by the Minister for Education, Minister for Health or Chief Minister*

I am an Information Officer appointed by the Director-General under section 18 of the FOI Act to deal with access applications made under Part 5 of the FOI Act.

In accordance with section 40 of the FOI Act, the Directorate was required to provide a decision on your access application within 30 working days of receipt, being 12 January 2026.

On 12 January 2026, the Directorate's FOI team contacted you to advise that third-party consultations were required. In accordance with section 38 the FOI Act, the decision date was extended by 15 working days to 3 February 2026.

On 30 January 2026, you were advised of an anticipated delay in the third-party consultation process. Thank you for agreeing to a further extension of processing period to 17 February 2026. Your understanding is greatly appreciated.

Decision on access

Searches were completed for relevant records and 29 records were identified that fall within the scope of your request.

I have included as Attachment A to this decision the schedule of relevant records. This provides a description of each record that falls within the scope of your request and the access decision for each of those records.

In summary, my decision is:

- full access to 17 records, and
- partial access to 12 records with deletions applied.

The records released to you are provided as Attachment B to this letter.

My access decisions are detailed further in the following statement of reasons.

Material considered

In reaching my access decision, I have taken the following into account:

- the FOI Act, particularly sections 16, 17, 35 and 50, and schedules 1 and 2
- the content of the records that fall within the scope of your request,
- the Human Rights Act 2004,
- the views of third parties consulted,
- the Information Privacy Act 2014, and
- the FOI Guidelines issued under section 66 of the FOI Act by the Ombudsman.

Reasons for decision

I have considered the records that are relevant to your request in accordance with the requirements of the FOI Act.

Section 6(a) of the FOI Act provides for a right of access to government information unless access would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest. Contrary to the public interest information is defined at section 16 of the FOI Act as information that is taken to be contrary to the public interest to disclose under Schedule 1; or the disclosure of which would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest under the test set out in section 17.

Section 50 of the FOI Act provides for records to be partially released with deletions applied where they contain contrary to the public interest information that can be removed, which enables the remainder of the record to be released. This provision has been applied where appropriate.

Information taken to be contrary to the public interest to disclose

None of the records contain information that is taken to be contrary to the public interest to disclose.

Information, the disclosure of which would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest

The public interest test requires the identification of factors favouring disclosure and non-disclosure, the balancing of those factors, and a decision whether, on balance, disclosure of the information would be contrary to the public interest.

I have decided that the factors favouring disclosure, as listed at Schedule 2.1 of the FOI Act, are that disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to:

- contribute to positive and informed debate on important issues or matters of public interest (Schedule 2, 2.1(a)(ii)); and
- reveal environmental or health risks or measures relating to public health and safety (Schedule 2, 2.1(a)(xi)).

The information sought is evidently of interest to members of the public, as the circumstances directly affected ACT public school students, parents, staff and the wider community. Disclosure also promotes transparency around how the Directorate identified, assessed and managed environmental or safety risks within public schools. Therefore, I give strong weight to the factors favouring disclosure.

I have decided that the applicable factors favouring non-disclosure, as listed at Schedule 2.2 of the FOI Act, are that disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to:

- prejudice the protection of an individual's right to privacy or any other right under the Human Rights Act 2004 (Schedule 2, 2.2(a)(ii)).

The consideration of the right to privacy of individuals and their right to have their personal information protected activates provisions of the Human Rights Act 2004 and the Information Privacy Act 2014. Section 12(a) of the Human Rights Act provides that everyone has the right 'not to have his or her privacy, family, home or correspondence interfered with unlawfully or arbitrarily'. Ombudsman review decisions addressing this matter have stated that this "can essentially be viewed as the right of an individual to preserve their personal sphere from interference by others". In addition, the Territory Privacy Principles contained in the Information Privacy Act 2014, set out the expectation that, in ordinary circumstances, individuals are required to give consent before their personal information, which includes information that could lead to them being identified, is disclosed. Consequently, I have decided that the right to privacy of individuals in relation to their personal information as a factor favouring non-disclosure has significant weight.

I have considered the factors favouring disclosure and the factors favouring non-disclosure.

As the factors favouring disclosure have been given significant weight, compared to the factors favouring disclosure having strong weight, some information deemed contrary to the public interest to disclose. This information has been deleted from the records released.
